Mkwawa University College of Education, Iringa – Tanzania Webpage: www.muce.ac.tz	HakiElimu, Dar es Salaam - Tanzania Webpage: https://hakielimu.or.tz	VIA University College, Aarhus, Denmark Webpage: https://en.via.dk/

Final Call for Roundtables

FECUN-Tanzania conference

The FECUN Tanzania conference takes place October 3-4, 2024. The conference is a hybrid conference and takes place both onsite and online over the internet. A pre-conference online event will take place on September 30.

The conference theme is Reimagining Education for Self-Reliance (ESR) in the context of Futures of Education, Culture, and Nature.

The onsite part of the conference takes place at Mkwawa University College of Education in Iringa, Tanzania. The online part of the conference takes place over Zoom and Zoom Events.

Organizers

This FECUN conference is organized in a joint collaboration between MUCE, Tanzania HakiElimu, Tanzania, and VIA University College, Denmark.

- MUCE (Mkwawa University College of Education), is a constituent college of the University of Dar es Salaam in Iringa, Tanzania, and is where the onsite part of the conference will take place.

- HakiElimu ('HakiElimu' Kiswahili for 'Right to Education') is a registered Non-Governmental Organization situated in Dar es Salaam, Tanzania it was established in 2001 by 13 Tanzanian Founding Members. HakiElimu is today the leading national expert in Tanzania in education, policy analysis, and advocacy.

- VIA University College, is an HEI in Vocational and Polytechnic education, situated in Aarhus, Denmark. The FECUN project is hosted by VIA.

Final Call for Roundtables

(onsite/online)

FECUN-Tanzania conference

A conference in the FECUN-conference series

Hybrid conference, October 3-4, 2024.

Conference theme:

Reimagining Education for Self-Reliance (ESR) in the context of Futures of Education, Culture, and Nature

Conference website

Conference theme and main subthemes:

The conference theme:

Reimagining Education for Self-Reliance (ESR) in the context of Futures of Education, Culture, and Nature is in line with one of the main ideas of the FECUN conference series, inspired by views of education, culture, and nature from a particular 'place' on planet Earth: in 2024 Tanzania. However, the conference theme is developed to function worldwide beyond the local context. The conference has several subthemes, and contributions should preferably address one or more of these subthemes.

Subthemes

The conference has the following subthemes:

- Subtheme 1: Reimagining Education for Self-Reliance and Curriculum Reforms and Innovations
- Subtheme 2: Reimagining Education for Self-Reliance and education of the marginalized
- Subtheme 3: Reimagining ESR and Gender
- Subtheme 4: Reimagining ESR, Multicultural and Intercultural Education
- Subtheme 5: Reimagining ESR and integration of 'Head, Heart, and Hands' (3H Model) in various forms and types of education
- Subtheme 6: ESR, the idea of powerful knowledge, and liberation through education
- Subtheme 7: ESR, Education for Sustainable Development, Education in the Anthropocene, Ecoliteracy, and Global Citizenship Education
- Subtheme 8: ESR, STEM and STEAM education
- Subtheme 9: Educational traditions, culture, and nature and humanistic futures studies

For more information and in-depth descriptions of FECUN, the theme, and the subthemes, we encourage you to download the concept note for the conference at http://2024.fecun.net/ .

Submitting a suggestion for a roundtable for the conference:

What is a roundtable?
A roundtable is an alternative to giving an individual presentation. It is especially interesting for people interested in presenting together, perhaps because they might be a part of the same organization or have been working together; further, there is a little more leeway regarding the organization of the roundtable. Where a Call for Paper typically relates to one 30-minute presentation (20+10 minutes), roundtables typically last 60-90 minutes. One applies for a roundtable by writing an abstract for the roundtable, giving the info on the presenting participants, and indicating the length of the roundtable as 60 or 90 minutes (if longer, contact conference organizers before submitting). Finally, indicate if the roundtable is onsite OR online. NB! Please note that should your roundtable be accepted, the conference organizers decide where it will be placed in the conference program.

Preparation: Besides this Call for Roundtables, you should use the roundtable template to submit an abstract.

Submission: To submit, send a submission using the submission template to fecun@via.dk. The deadline for submissions is August 31, 2024.

Timeline for the Second Call for Roundtables for the conference:

- August 31, 2024: Deadline for abstracts for presentations (notification of acceptance within a week after submission)
- October 3-4, 2024: FECUN Tanzania Conference; September 30, 2024: Preconference online event

General info regarding video recordings and possible publication at FECUN conferences:

Video-recordings

- All FECUN conference presentations might be recorded and uploaded to the FECUN video channel. The purpose of this is to make as many of the presentations as possible worldwide accessible also after the conference.
- The conference presentations will be uploaded so they comply with the European Union's GDPR (General Data Protection Regulative)

Information on publication in FECUN journal conference issue for the conference:

- After the conference, the organizers will be offered the possibility of submitting a paper or a longer article on the workshop for review.
- The review's outcome is accepted, not accepted, or conditionally accepted. After the review, authors of conditionally accepted submissions will have a month to make relevant adjustments.
- If accepted, the paper/article will be published in the reviewed conference issue of the FECUN journal, which is expected to be published in Spring 2025.

Contact information and Inquiries:

- Please do not hesitate to write us if you have any questions or comments regarding the FECUN 2024 Tanzania Conference:
- For inquiries related to onsite participation in Tanzania: mfoed-conference@muce.ac.tz
- For inquiries related to online participation and other inquiries fecun@via.dk